It's always been this way. The tan-boy fantasists that scream "trust the plan/ it's happening/ breaking/ we gottem" buisnit, while calling anyone that disagrees with them "doomers", to me have always been controlled opposition.

I have to ask, what do you want happen? I keep seeing this sentiment, but the 'happening' isn't defined. Do you want the right to burn down some buildings? Wag their finger at Congress? What exactly is expected out of the DC protest? I'm seriously curious here.

At this point I think some would be satisfied slightly by a mix of the above ... -- that is wagging a finger at a burning Congress building .
At this point might as well add the SCOTUS building as well . The places from where we cannot expect justice .

I'm holding out hope that it won't come to that, but today is the day we find out. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n6wRKZFbFeQ>

What do I want to happen? I want the people to drag the swamp out into the streets and hang them if they don't stop this today. Those who make peaceful revolution impossible, make violent revolution inevitable.

Absolutely not. If we wait until then, Biden will hold the office. That will be a huge disadvantage compared to today.

Preach. If the politicians won't do the right thing today, even if only for their own self preservation, it is time to show them why the government is supposed to fear the people and not the other way around.
